by the traveling public with which he was deservedly popular.

Mr. Bowen was born at Plattsburg, New York, in 1869, and was educated at Pittsfield, Mass. He was the son of Hon. S. P. Bowen, of Plattsburg, a prominent citizen of that place and, in fact, well known in New York state politics. He came south nine years ago and became identified with some of the Florida east coast hotels, having been connected with both the Windsor and the Aragon hotels in Jacksonville. He came to Pensacola and assumed charge of the Southern, May 1, of the present year, and was very successful, building up a good business and making his hotel one of the most popular in the city. He was married four years ago to a Miss Bucyrus. They had no children. Mrs.
Bowen was with her husband and attended him through his illness, but even the loving attention of a devoted wife and all that medical skill could devise was not sufficient to save him.The funeral will be held Wednesday morning at St. Michael's church and the interment will be made by the Knights of Columbus, of which order the deceased was a member.
Since coming to Pensacola Mr. Bowen had made many friends and he had identified himself with the spirit of enterprise which of late years has taken hold of the city. His death will be regretted by all and the sympathies of all who knew him will go out to the wife of the deceased in her sad bereavement.

Jealous of Imaginary Ills.

"Talk of a woman's jealousy of her husband," said a physician of long experience in New York. "It is nothing compared to her jealousy of another woman's chronic ailments. Half the doctors would starve if it were not for the prevalence of illnesses that are purely imaginary. Of course, it does not do for us to tell a woman who has firmly made up her mind that she is ill that she is not ill. In nine cases out of ten she would lose her temper and consult another doctor.
Among certain women invalidism gives them a distinction which is gratifying to their self love. They may literally be said to 'enjoy poor health.' They look for the doctor's visit to them or their call at his office as the most exciting event of the day. If they know him well enough, they implore him to waive professional etiqette and tell them about ailments of other women who consult him. Women of this description—and they are legion—have a craving for martyrdom, which doctoring an imaginary illness seems to satisfy."—New York TimesNICE FRESH OYSTERS ON THE

INSPECTORS
AT WORKMany Houses Were Visited by Those Who Are Rendering Service Gratis.The volunteer inspectors, who are giving their services free to the city in order to discover and locate any cases of sickness which have not been reported to the proper authorities, were at work yesterday, although the day was anything but a pleasant one for making the rounds of houses and questioning the occupants.Sunday a meeting of those who had volunteered their services, was held in the city hall, pursuant to a request from Mayor Bliss, when plans were mapped out for making the inspection a thorough one. The visits to the houses will be made each day, and any case of sickness found will be reported at once. These inspectors are clothed with the same powers as the paid inspectors. Although there are a large number of the latter they are unable to cover the city in as quick time as desired, whereas if enough citizens can be secured a report covering the entire city can be made each day.Yesterday quite a number of additions were made to the list of volunteers, but the names could not be secured last night. The list as compiled up to yesterday morning is as follows:F. M. Williams, blocks 201, 202, 203,

OF YELLOW FEVER AFTER AN ILLNESS OF ONLY TWO DAYS.Basil E. Bogart, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Bogart, expired Sunday night shortly before 11 o'clock of yellow fever. Death occurred at the home of his parents, No. 700 East Wright street.The young man was taken ill Saturday morning at 8 o'clock. He was employed at the Louisville and Nashville shops, and went direct to his home, where a physician was summoned, and pronounced the case yellow fever.The young man had reached the age of 19 years and 7 months. He had been employed at the navy yard, but when the quarantine was declared against Pensacola, he did not return to the yard, but remained in the city, later accepting a position in the shops, which he held for five days before being taken with the fever.During Sunday he was very cheerful and it seemed to be only a mild case. Shortly after 7 o'clock, however, he began to grow worse, and later was taken with the black vomit, expiring at 10:45 o'clock.He leaves a mother and father, grand-mother, two sisters and three brothers to mourn his loss, in addition to a large number of friends.The funeral services will be conducted from the family residence this morning at 10 o'clock.NICE, FRESH MOBILE OYSTERS

A LITTLE STEALTH

"Let not Thy Left Hand Know What Thy Right Hand Doeth," Especially When the Left is a bit Cranky.Some of the most lovable and best people in the world are cranky, and a "little" hard to manage, particularly when you want to do them good. Then it is that justifiable and righteous artfulness may be resorted to. As for instance, in the following case given by a devoted wife and mother, in Iowa:"This Spring my daughter, who is a teacher, became convinced that coffee was doing her harm, as it caused distress and belching after eating. She felt that she needed a warm drink in the morning but disliked hot water or milk. Then our daily use of Grape-Nuts suggested Postum."For some time my husband, who has been a user of coffee from his youth, had been more than usually troubled with sleeplessness and nervousness and I felt that Postum might be helpful to him. The question was, how to persuade them to leave off drinking coffee and try Postum, against which they had repeatedly expressed prejudice. I resolved to try an experiment and make the test."Without acquainting them with the fact I made Postum according to directions, but added a teaspoonful of good cocoa. I poured it out with some misgivings, but was delighted to see that no one could tell from its appearance that it was not rich, strong coffee. Its use was continued for a week with the coffee addition, then that was gradually withdrawn, until only the pure Postum remained, and still the change had not been detected."Two things were very noticeable, however, that my daughter had begun to rapidly improve in health, her dyspepsia left, and my husband was enjoying sweet, refreshing sleep."When I venture to tell them what I had done, he asked for a return to the coffee, and I gladly made it for him; but one day satisfied him, the old sleeplessness came back and he told me he liked the Postum better. So we have used it ever since to the benefit of the whole family." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.Look in each package for the famous little book "The Road to Wellville."

A Judicious Inquiry.

A well known traveling man, who victims the drug trade says he has often heard druggists inquire of customers who asked for a cough medicine, whether it was wanted for a child or for an adult, and if for a child they almost invariably recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that they know there is no danger from it and that it always cures. There is not the least danger in giving it, and for coughs, colds and croup it is unsurpassed. For sale by all druggists.

NICE FRESH OYSTERS ON THE HALF SHELL DAILY AT NICK APOSTLE.RHEUMATISM AN INSIDIOUS DISEASE THAT BREAKS DOWN
THE STRONGESTRheumatism does not come on in a day; the causes that produce it work silently in the system for years. This insidious disease becomes entrenched in the blood, and some exposure to cold or damp weather, or slight indiscretion brings on an attack. Poor digestion, stomach troubles, weak kidneys, torpid liver, and a general sluggish condition of the system are responsible for Rheumatism. Food souring in the stomach poisons the blood, the failure of the kidneys and liver to act properly leaves waste matter and impurities in the system, which, coming in contact with the natural acids of the body, form uric acid. This is absorbed by the blood, and as it penetrates to the muscles, nerves and bones produces the terrible pains and aches and other disagreeable symptoms of Rheumatism. Life is made a torture by its excruciating pains, nerves are shattered, the health undermined, and if the disease is not checked it breaks down the strongest constitution. It will not do to depend on plasters, liniments, etc.; such treatment is helpful in easing the pain and reducing the inflammation, but does not reach the blood where the real trouble is located. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism by purifying and invigorating the thin, acid blood, driving out all impurities and poisons and sending a stream of strong, rich blood to wash out all irritating particles that are causing the pain and inflammation. S. S. S. stimulates the sluggish organs to better action, tones up the stomach and digestion, restores nervous energy and builds up the entire health. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism, whether acute or chronic, and the cure is thorough and lasting. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice desired without charge.
